[Mod. F.L.N. 418/65.]

*(b) the Minister with the concurrence of the Chief Minister may, by order signified in the Gazette having application to the whole or any area of Sarawak and to any class or description of business and to any period, grant exemption from the payment of tax, or reduce or remit any tax or any part thereof.

the Collector may, and, without prejudice to subsection (3) shall, if so required in writing by the registered proprietor, state a case for the opinion of the High Court:

Provided that, save where he has been so required, the Collector shall not state a case without prior notice in writing to the registered proprietor stating briefly why it is proposed to state a case and the circumstances and conditions under which it will not be necessary for him to state a case.

(2) Where a case has been stated pursuant to subsection (1), any proceedings for the recovery of any tax or any penalty under section 9 which may have been initiated shall be stayed until such case has been determined.

[Am. Act 92; Act A671.]

(4) Where a case has been stated for the opinion of the High Court, the Court shall have power to amend the same or to require the Collector to amend or restate the same, if it appears to the Court that there are disputed questions of fact affecting the liability to tax or the amount thereof, the Court may in its discretion either direct that evidence be adduced, whether by affidavit or by oral testimony, on such questions as a preliminary issue to the determination of the case stated, or in the course of such determination, or direct the Collector to take proceedings before an Appropriate Magistrate for recovery of the tax alleged to be due so that such disputed questions of fact may, without prejudice to any appeal, be determined in such proceedings.

(5) Upon the hearing of any case stated, the Court shall determine the questions submitted:

Provided that—

(a) if in its opinion any tax or penalty is due, it shall, unless the amount of the same is agreed, proceed to assess the same and, without prejudice to its power to re-adjust or remit the penalty, shall order the payment of any tax or penalty;

(b) if in its opinion, no tax or penalty is due, it shall declare accordingly, and make any order necessary to give effect to such declaration and to adjust the rights of the parties; including, where required, an order for the re-payment of any tax or penalty, which may have been paid; and

(c) the Court may make such order as to the payment of costs as, having regard to its determination of the case stated and the conduct of the parties before, and in the course of, such determination, it deems fit.

(6) An appeal shall lie to the Federal Court from the determination of any question submitted on a case stated, and from any order made by the High Court under subsection (5), in like manner as if the same were an original judgment of the High Court within the meaning of section 67 of the Courts of Judicature Act, 1964.
