THE NATURAL RESOURCES AND ENVIRONMENT ORDINANCE, 1993

NATURAL RESOURCES AND ENVIRONMENT
(COLLECTION AND DISPOSAL OF USED TYRES) RULES, 2012

(Made under section 18(u) and (v))

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 18(u) and (v) of the Natural Resources and Environment Ordinance [Cap. 84 (1958 Ed.)], the Majlis Mesyuarat Kerajaan Negeri has made the following Rules:

Citation, application and commencement

1.—(1) These Rules may be cited as the Natural Resources and Environment (Collection and Disposal of Used Tyres) Rules, 2012.

(2) These Rules shall come into force on such date as may be appointed by the Minister by a Notification published in the Gazette, and the Minister may appoint different dates for the coming into force of these Rules in different local authority areas in the State.

Interpretation

2. In these Rules— “approved site” means any site, plant or premises approved by the Controller to which used tyres may be delivered, deposited, treated, disposed of, recycled or converted to other products;

“Board” means the Natural Resources and Environment Board;

“Controller” means the Controller of Environmental Quality appointed under section 3(9) of the Ordinance;

“licensed collector” means any person licensed under rule 4 to collect, receive or remove used tyres from any tyre trader or owner of a vehicle to an approved site;

“local authority” has the same meaning assigned to it in the Local Authorities Ordinance, 1996 [Cap. 20];

“Minister” means the Minister in the State Government having responsibility for environment;

“Ordinance” means the Natural Resources and Environment Ordinance [Cap. 84 (1958 Ed.)];

“owner”, in relation to a vehicle, includes its registered owner, lessee and any other person or body of persons having control or possession thereof;

“permitted quantity” means the maximum pieces of used tyres as specified by the Minister by a Notification in the Gazette which a tyre trader registered under these Rules is permitted to have at any one time in each of his business premises or in each of his building, site, land or location;

“person” includes an individual, a firm, a company or any other body of persons whether corporate or unincorporate;

“retreading” means providing tyres with new rubber surfaces in order to be fit for reuse, and to ensure such tyres meet the requirements as specified in the Malaysian Standard MS 224:2005 (Retreaded Pneumatic Rubber Tyres for Passenger Cars & Commercial Vehicles) or such other standards as may be issued or published by the Department of Standards Malaysia from time to time;

“tyre retreader” means any person who carries on the business of retreading of tyres;

“tyre trader” means any person (other than a tyre retreader) who, in the course of his trade or business, sells or offers for sale tyres or mends or repairs or replace tyres of vehicles and includes a person who sells vehicles which have been fitted with or have rubber tyres;

“used tyres” means tyres which are no longer serviceable or can no longer be used in any vehicle or are removed from any vehicle and not meant for retreading or to be repaired for use in any vehicle; and

“vehicle” means any car, lorry, truck, tractor, plane, moveable plant or equipment and includes a motorcycle, bicycle, tricycle or rickshaw.

Prohibition to deposit, dispose of, etc. used tyres

3.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), no owner of a vehicle or tyre trader or person having control or possession of any used tyres, shall—

(a) deposit, throw away, discard or dispose of any used tyres from his premises except at an approved site;

(b) deliver or hand over or remove from his premises, possession or custody any used tyre to any person who is not a licensed collector or holder of a permit; or

(c) permit any person other than a licensed collector or holder of a permit, to take away or remove from his premises, possession or control any used tyre.

(2) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence: Penalty, a fine not exceeding thirty thousand ringgit or a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year or to both fine and imprisonment.

(3) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any person—

(a) who is authorized in writing by the Licensed Collector to collect or remove used tyres on its behalf from a tyre trader, tyre retreader or owner of a vehicle; or

- (b) who is issued with a permit by the Controller to take away or remove used tyres for specific purposes under rule 8; or
- (c) who is a tyre retreader and is registered with the Controller under rule 9.

Licensed collector

4.—(1) No person shall collect or remove any used tyre from any tyre trader or owner of a vehicle or any other person having control or possession of any used tyre, unless—

- (a) he is licensed to collect or remove used tyres by the Controller; or
- (b) he is authorised in writing by the Licensed Collector to collect or remove used tyres on its behalf.

(2) The Licensed Collector shall notify the Controller of the name, address and such other relevant particulars of the person authorised by him pursuant to paragraph 1(b).

Licence to collect used tyres

5.—(1) The Controller may grant a licence to any person to collect used tyres and to remove or transport the tyres for disposal at an approved site.

(2) An application for a licence shall be made in such form as may be prescribed by the Controller, and he may require the applicant to provide such other particulars or information as may be required by him.

(3) The licence shall be in the form specified in the First Schedule.

(4) Any licence granted under this rule shall be for such period and may be subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Controller.

(5) A licence issued under this rule shall not be transferable or assigned to any other party.

(6) An application to renew a licence shall be made to the Controller not less than one month prior to the date of its expiry.

Display of licence

6. A person who has been issued with a licence under rule 5 shall display the licence at his place of business and produce it for inspection when so required by an officer authorised by the Controller.

Records of collection

7. A licensee shall keep or cause to be kept proper and true records of the used tyres collected by him or by any other persons authorised in writing by the licensee, in such form and containing such particulars as may be stipulated by the Controller.

Permit to take away or remove used tyres

8.—(1) The Controller may issue a permit to take away or remove used tyres to any of the following—

- (a) any person involved in fishery who requires used tyres as artificial reef; or
 - (b) any person who requires used tyres for landscaping; or
 - (c) an owner or organiser of go-cart racing, car racing, sports arena or other similar sporting facilities or events which requires used tyres as protective shields or similar purposes; or
 - (d) an owner of buildings or a contractor who requires used tyres for construction of retaining wall, jetty or other structural purposes; or
 - (e) such other persons and for such other purposes as may be approved by the Controller.
- (2) The permit shall be subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Controller.
- (3) The permit shall be in the form specified in the Second Schedule.

Registration of tyre trader or tyre retreader

9.—(1) Any person who carries on the trade or business of a tyre trader or tyre retreader is required to register himself with the Controller.

(2) An application for registration shall be made in such form as may be prescribed by the Controller, and the Controller may require the applicant to provide such other particulars and information as may be required by him.

(3) Upon approval of the application, a certificate of registration shall be issued by the Controller, which may be subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by him.

(4) The Controller may suspend or revoke a certificate of registration if he is satisfied that the holder thereof has breached any of the terms and conditions imposed on the certificate.

Register

10. The Controller shall keep a register of all licences, certificates of registration and permits issued under these Rules.

Direction

11.—(1) The Controller may, after consultation with the Minister, may issue direction—

(a) to a tyre trader on the manner in which used tyres shall be stored or kept at his premises or custody or possession pending the collection or removal thereof;

(b) to any person granted a licence to collect used tyres on the manner in which used tyres may be collected and transported to an approved site for the purpose of protecting the environment, to prevent health, fire hazard and injury to others;
